

Postwar reconstruction in Europe

Thursday 5 and Friday 6 June 2008 Birkbeck, University of London

Birkbeck's Balzan Project concludes with a final conference on Postwar Reconstruction in Europe. Panels examine different facets of reconstruction after 1945, ranging from the timing and chronology of reconstruction to the impact of Cold War and decolonization on reconstruction agendas. The conference brings into focus the recent growth of interest in 'the lost decade' after the end of the Second World War.

Speakers include Mark Mazower, Adam Tooze, Jakob Tanner, Mark Harrison, Silvio Pons, Andes Stephanson, Richard Bessel, Jan Gross, Pieter Lagrou, Fred Cooper, Nick White, Peter Romijn, Remco Raben, Harold James and Emma Rothschild.

Please contact Jessica Reinisch (j.reinisch@bbk.ac.uk) to reserve a place

